Agentic AI refers to AI systems that act autonomously with goal-directed behavior.

These systems can perceive, reason, and make decisions without constant human input.

They are used to automate complex workflows and adapt to dynamic environments.

Agentic AI combines planning, memory, and tool-use for problem solving.

It has growing applications in business automation, software, and telecom industries.